GFT Increases its List of Tradable Currency Pairs to 123

Ada, Mich., Oct. 8, 2007 — Global Forex Trading (GFT) has announced that 59 additional currency pairs have been added to its extensive list of tradable forex pairs. GFT now offers its customers 123 forex currency pairs to trade, which is more than any other U.S.-based forex dealer, and among the top few of all online trading companies.

“We added seven additional pairs earlier this year, and are pleased to now offer our customers even more choices when trading in the forex market,” said Kurt Hoeksema, vice president, dealing and risk management, GFT. “As new markets continue to emerge and grow, the liquidity also increases, providing more currency pairs that are suitable for trading.”

With a doubling of available currency pairs, GFT customers are now able to trade nearly any currency pair they prefer. All 123 currency pairs can easily be sorted, organized and traded with GFT’s award-winning DealBook® 360 trading software. Customers can streamline their trading activities by creating customized portfolios within DealBook® 360, selecting only the pairs that they are currently trading or watching. All currency pairs can also be traded within GFT’s DealBook® WEB and DealBook® Mobile trading platforms.

GFT made the currency pair additions to stay ahead of global markets and trends, as it continues to offer its customers among the finest services and software in the online foreign exchange industry.
